ORDER

15 On July 23, 2020, Petitioner filed an “Emergency Motion for Immediate Release or 16 Order to Show Cause Why Immediate Release Should Not Be Granted.” (Doc. 67.) In the 17 Motion, Petitioner claims in relevant part that her “prolonged placement [in] solitary 18 confinement exacerbates mental health conditions, weakens immune systems, and subjects 19 [her] to unnecessary and unlawful pain and suffering,” and “[e]ven if [she] is returned to 20 the general population, she will continue to suffer serious harm amounting to prohibited 21 punishment,” and she “must therefore be immediately released from custody.”

22 On August 3, 2020, Petitioner filed a Reply in support of her Motion, in which she 23 now claims that she should be released because Respondents have violated the Court’s 24 May 19, 2020 Order. She attaches several supporting declarations to her Reply. (Doc. 79.)
25 Having reviewed the filings,
